A Typical Day on Xbox Live

A Typical day on Xbox live

Disclaimer: I do not own halo or halo2 or any people mentioned in this story

When I first got Xbox live I didn't know what to expect. I mean why should I it was new to me. In fact I was a total newbie. Like some or most people who have a first account.

But a player on live took me under his wing. His name was tetuonicknight. He is a really cool guy. He taught me a few tricks and wham I get a level 17 in 3 days!

Now that may not seem like an accomplishment but it was still pretty good.

So this is an encouragement to all newbs there is hope for you practice makes perfect.
